Thought for the Week: You cannot depend on your eyes when your imagination is out of focus. Mark Twain

RELAY IN MAY

As many of you know our area has been hit hard by cancer. This service is a way to help those in need. A cancer patient has to rely on family and friends to get them to their appointments. Sometimes this means that the caregiver has to take time off work, unpaid, causing another hardship.

Ribbon Rides is a fund for helping those in the Warren, Van Buren and Liberty Center area who are dealing with Cancer. Volunteers will sign up to give cancer patients rides to their doctors appointments, chemotherapy and radiation treatments when needed and be given a nominal fee to cover gasoline for these trips. Patients will contact Ribbon Rides with their requests for a ride and to be matched up with a driver. Ribbon Rides will give that patient someone to call for a free ride. Drivers will pick the patient up, take them to and bring them home from their appointments.

On May 28th and 29th there will be a Ribbon Rides Relay at Tower park from noon on Saturday to 6 am Sunday.

Events in the planning stages include a Softball Tourney, Cornhole Tourney, Relay Walk, Carnival Games, t-shirts, food and much more! Funds from each of the events at the Relay will go towards the Ribbon Rides fund.

We are reaching out to the community to ask for your help. Clubs, businesses, 4-H groups, FFA groups, church youth groups - we need your help. We need you to set up and sponsor a carnival game or a fund-raising project for that weekend. Individuals - we would love to have you participate in the Relay. Get pledges from friends, family and co-workers - example: $1 per lap - then walk as many laps as you want. We'll have lap counters on hand to help you keep track! The Relay track will be available all day.

We'll also have $5 Luminary sponsorships available. We'll set up a luminary with a name and candle in honor of your loved one - living or deceased. You may also purchase your luminary the day of the event and decorate it yourself. We'll have a candlelight vigil at 10 pm Saturday and a Sunrise Service at 6am on Sunday. Walkers can walk through the night. We have permission from Town Council to be in the park overnight.

If your group would like to participate - please contact the Warren Weekly at 260.375.3531, if you don't get an answer - please leave a message and we'll get back to you. Or contact us through Facebook at Ribbon Rides Relay.

We're hoping to have a fun activity filled day raising money for a worthy fund.

Stay tuned for more information as we get things planned. You can keep up with us on Facebook at Ribbon Rides Relay.

Kudos, Kicks & Karats

THE UPTOWN GARDENER by Ruth Herring

Well folks I have been trying to regenerate my worn out brain. Thanks to Treva for filling you in on our exciting trip to visit my brother and family. Also got to see nieces and nephews who I had not seen for quite a long time. It was quite a reunion.

Now I am patiently waiting for spring weather and getting a bit impatient. Have started a few marigold seeds inside and they are getting a bit anxious to be out in the good soil. I have peas planted but not seen any up yet but lettuce and spinach I have in pots are coming up nice. Can hardly wait for my spring and summer special of peanut butter lettuce sandwiches. The spring bulbs are blooming but look as if they have been thru a war zone pretty sad looking and hope my clematis make it. It really got hit hard even though it was in a protected area close to house. The grass is really green and been expecting for a hay baler to be coming in to come thru to clean up the harvest. With so much rain they just have not been able to mow, but the green grass is sure a welcome to see.

This winter I have been working on some quilts that I do for special charities I give to. My favorite is for the Hospice, they were so good to Wayne at that difficult time for us. I feel it is a way of repaying our thanks for the support given to us.

Well it is time again to get out the old recipe book and came up with another of Moms recipes.

Nut Crunch Cookies

4 cups flour, 1 heaping teaspoon baking powder, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1 cup each white and brown sugar, 1/2 cup butter or lard, 1/2 cup nut crunch (evidently this was chopped or ground up nuts), 1 cup sweet or sour cream, 1 teaspoon soda, 1 tablespoon vanilla. She had no directions for baking so let yourself be the guide as to whether it is a drop cookie or maybe form into a roll chill and slice and bake at about 350.

Nice to be back at it again have great spring.

Karen Bandelier passed out ballots for voting on new officers; no names were nominated from the floor.

Barbara Overdeer moved that the ballot be accepted as presented and Barb Buroker seconded.

One of our members had an accident and is in rehab. Members are encouraged to send cards and to remember her on her birthday.

CAMP RILEY ENROLLMENT

Camp Riley empowers children with physical disabilities by providing enriching, life-changing experiences in a traditional camping environment tailored to their individual needs. For 61 years, campers have shattered perceived limitations, met new friends and reached higher achievements, allowing them to return home with an increased sense of independence and confidence.

In honor of the 2016 Summer Olympics and Paralympics, "Olympics" is the theme for Camp Riley in 2016. Online applications to secure a spot for Camp Riley are available at RileyKids.org/Camp.

Riley Hospital for Children at Indiana University Health provides medical staff for Camp Riley, including medical and nursing directors, resident physicians, nurses, and a pharmacy team. 24-hour medical care is available during camp.

The staff-to-camper ratio never exceeds 1-to-3. Children can attend one of five Camp Riley sessions offered during a six-week span. Sessions offer camaraderie and thrills through swimming, hiking, horseback riding, vertical climbing, canoeing, art projects and other activities. New families may also attend Newcomers' Day on Saturday, May 21 to learn more about

Camp RileyKids.org/Camp offers an online photo gallery showcasing camp activities.

Camp Riley takes place at Bradford Woods, Indiana University's outdoor recreation center located 20 miles southwest of Indianapolis (in Martinsville, Ind.). Bradford Woods staff facilitate camper experiences. In 2015, 201 campers enrolled in Camp Riley, representing 53 Indiana counties and seven states: Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Maryland, Michigan, Ohio and Pennsylvania. Since 1955, Camp Riley has been a "home away from home" to more than 13,000 children.

Camp Riley is made possible through support from Riley Children's Foundation. Thanks to donors, the cost to attend Camp Riley is $400 for a one-week session and $800 for a two-week session. Beyond that, a sliding scale is available depending on household income. In 2016, 34 percent of Camp Riley families qualified for a reduced camper fee. Every child can attend Camp Riley regardless of their ability to pay. No child will be turned away.

Questions should be directed to Riley Children's Foundation at 1-877-867-4539 or campriley@rileykids.org. Donors interested in providing Riley. the Camp Riley experience to Indiana children with the gift of a campership should contact Riley Children's Foundation.

2016 Camp Riley Theme: "Olympics"

In honor of the 2016 Summer Olympics & Paralympics, we invite you to join us in the woods for an Olympic extravaganza! Much like our Olympians, this summer you can expect to show off your unique abilities, discover new talents and meet lifelong friends that love adventure just as much as you do! Whether you enjoy swimming, arts and crafts, archery or zipping across the ravine, expect to go for the gold this summer! We look forward to seeing you at camp – let the games begin!

Newcomers' Day Saturday, May 21, 2016 10 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Newcomer's Day lets new campers and families do a "trial run" with a visit to Camp Riley at Bradford Woods. Camp families can see the facilities and property, experience camp activities, attend parent informational sessions, discussions and activities, and join a question-and-answer session with camp staff.
