Thought for the Week: Remember to Give Thanks for all the blessings in your life this Thanksgiving.

FOOD DRIVE A SUCCESS!

Salamonie School held a food drive recently and collected over 2000 food items for the Warren and Markle food pantries for Thanksgiving. Mrs. Berghoff, school counselor, would like to thank students, parents, and staff for generously donating food items this week for those who might need food for Thanksgiving dinner.

Katy Schenkel (6th grade) and Thomas Trout (8th grade) are sorting through some of the donated items in the picture.

LIBRARY NEWS

There will be no after school Story Time at Salamonie School the week of November 24. Storytime will resume for three weeks beginning on December 1, with grades Kindergarten through Second Grade on Mondays, 3:30 – 4:15 and Third and Fourth Grades on Wednesdays, 3:30 – 4:15. If you have misplaced the permission sheet, just send a note with the child stating that they have permission to stay for the story time. Each child needs a note for the classroom teacher (not a phone call) to stay for this activity.

We will be collecting items and donate them to two needy families in the area. We need your help. This is also a way for us to give back to the community for all that you have done for the Sportsman's Club. We will have Chili, Vegetable, Potato, and Oyster soup for you to enjoy. Come out and warm up on a chilly night. The Soup Supper will be Wednesday, December 3rd. We will serve from 5:00-7:00. Coffee and Lemonade will also be available. This is free to the Public. We hope to see you on Wednesday, December 3rd. Don't forget your non-perishable food item.

HOLIDAY OPEN HOUSE

The holiday shop at Handcrafters will hold an open house to celebrate the holiday season Thanksgiving weekend. After feasting on your holiday meal, we welcome you to stop in and check out the items we have to help you with your holiday shopping. We have very nice items for gift giving and for holiday decorating. While there enjoy refreshments of hot spiced cider. Hours will be Friday 10am to 5pm and Saturday 10am to 3pm. Nancy, Bob, Treva, Wayne and Ruth invite you to join us. Happy Holidays to each of you.

KARING FOR KIDS

"Karing for Kids Angel Tree" has been a ministry primarily in Wells Co. for past five years, but is now coming to Huntington County and the Warren Church of Christ is one of the new locations to participate. This ministry to kids in need at Christmas time has really grown. From just a handful of children at its start it has blossomed into an outreach that has helped nearly 300 youngsters last year.

First names of kids in the county are placed on a small Christmas tree with the suggested gift to purchase for them. You buy the gift and bring it back to the church unwrapped and then a big wrapping party takes place to prepare the gifts for distribution. We invite you to participate in this wonderful opportunity to help kids in need in our county.

Karing for Kids was featured on the from page in the November 20th issue of the TAB and was on the front page of the Herald Press. Now you're reading about in the Warren Weekly.

Karing for Kids was started by Tim and Rhonda O'Reilly as a way to honor the memory of the death of their daughter, Jennifer, who died in an auto accident on her way to school in 2003.

You may contact the Warren Church of Christ about securing a name to purchase a gift for a worthy kid at Christmas. Deadline for the gifts is December 14th. Please call Gerald Moreland at 224-4844 for any questions.

CELEBRATION OF LOVE

CELEBRATE THE HOLIDAYS AT THE PULSE

The good news is that over 1,200 people saw Annie, Jr. at the Pulse last weekend. The better news is that there are still two more weekends to catch the classic family musical. What a wonderful way to kick off the holidays with your family!

The response was unanimous. "Annie Jr is AWESOME!" The show is performed by local and area youth who are 6-18 years old. This production is highly recommended for the entire family and groups.

TRUE HOLIDAY SPIRIT

by Bryan Golden

Among other things, the holidays are a time of giving and receiving gifts. The question most often asked of people is "what did you get?" Much less frequently asked is "what did you give?" Invariably, the inquiries concern material gifts. Purchasing a gift can certainly be thoughtful and a wonderful gesture, especially when it's backed up by your actions.

However, the most valuable presents are those that aren't sold in stores. When you give your love, your time, help someone in need, aid another in solving a problem or overcoming an obstacle, you give something priceless.

The true spirit of the holidays is giving. When you give, you receive. You can get anything in life you want by helping enough others get what they want. But only if you give without expecting anything in return. The impact of giving isn't limited to just the holiday season, it's something that has value all year.

The power of giving is underestimated. When you give unconditionally, you don't just impact the recipient; you start a chain reaction. By brightening the life of one person you also affect all those who they then touch.

No gesture of giving or kindness is too small. Holding the door open at a store, helping someone carry groceries to their car, letting another car in front of you, saying please and thank you, and saying hello to a stranger you pass on the sidewalk, are some of the many things you can do daily.

For family and friends, your time is one of the most precious gifts you can offer. Are you there for others when they need you? Do you offer a hand without being asked? Do you help out when asked?

Too often, people get caught up in their own desires, thus losing sight of the needs of others. A person who tries to get through life by looking out for himself or herself first is invariably frustrated. Often this person views life as a competition to determine who can accumulate more.

On the other hand, those who are concerned for the well being of others are happier, more content, and more satisfied. By giving without expecting, they in turn receive the things they need.

Giving is a simple concept that works every time it is applied. There will be people who don't appreciate what you do, but it doesn't matter. You are giving without anticipating anything in return. Besides, there will be many more who are thankful for your efforts.

If you don't treat others well, buying a gift won't compensate for your behavior. The recipient might like what you give them but it won't make up for your actions. You can't bribe someone to forgive the way you treat them with a present.

The best gift you can receive is the joy of making someone else happy. Being unselfish is a wonderful way to live. When you give with no ulterior motives, your actions are seen as genuine. Should you expect something in return, your behavior is always suspect. We all know people who do nice things only when they want something in return.

Make giving a daily routine. Don't start and end with the holiday season. Every day is a good day to do something nice. When people feel good due to your actions, you can't help but feel happy yourself. And that is priceless. The most significant action you can take is having a positive impact on the lives of others.

has been completed. Their home was damaged by fire in early 2008. A community project was developed to raise funds needed to repair and make the house livable again. Community projects such as an auction of donated items, a local breakfast fundraiser, a local NASCAR night fundraiser, and a local dinner fundraiser were held. Enough money was raised to restore the house, to purchase property insurance, and to purchase fuel for the home. The project is complete and the house is ready for move-in day.

Community members, project volunteers, and project donors are invited to attend this Celebration of Love on Sunday.

Isn't it amazing what people can do when they come together to help others?

Thanks to everyone who participated in this project.

PAY TRIBUTE

Americans pay tribute to those who currently serve or have served their country in a number of ways. A number of organizations are making sure they receive mail over the holiday season, and the US Postal Service has the products and service to get cards and packages to their destination.

The American Red Cross (ARC) is collecting holiday cards to distribute to service members, veterans and their families in the United States and around the world. According to the ARC, their goal is to collect and distribute one million holiday cards to spread holiday cheer and facilitate thanks to these brave individuals and families.

Every card received will first be screened for hazardous materials and then reviewed. All cards must be postmarked no later than Wednesday, December 10, 2008. Cards sent after this date will be returned to sender. They must be signed. People are asked to not include email of home addresses on the cards themselves, as the program is not meant to foster pen pal relationships. Nor should they include inserts of any kind, including photos, as these items will be removed during the reviewing process. Lastly, participants should limit the number of cards they submit to 25 from any one person or 50 from any one class or group.

Cards should be sent to: Holiday Mail for Heroes, PO Box 5456, Capital Heights, MD 20791-5456.

"People wishing to participate can purchase our holiday stamps either online at www.usps.com or in the Warren Post Office," said Postmaster Stephanie Bauman. "We also offer a way for people to create their own greeting cards, through Card Store on our website."

Individuals who do not personally know a service member but wish to send a care package can do so through one of more than 120 service organizations listed under Home Front Groups at www.AmericaSupportsYou.com.

"Care packages can be a big morale boost," Bauman said.

"One of the best deals around is the Priority Mail Large Flat Rate Box. Boxes going to Army Post Office (APO) and Fleet Post Office (FPO) addresses also receive a two dollar discount. The cost to APO/FPO addresses is $10.95 at the retail counter and $10.50 on line.

The Military Care Kit, or "Mili-kit" makes it easier to send care packages to someone stationed overseas. The kit contains three flat rate boxes, two cube boxes, nine address labels, and 16 customs forms. These kits may be ordered by calling the USPS Expedited Package Supply Center at 1-800-610-8734. There is no charge for the kit.

MITTENS FOR MUNCHKINS

Parkview Huntington Hospital invites the Huntington County community to share its warmth this winter with the children of the county by participating in the hospital's third annual Mittens for Munchkins Christmas program.

Beginning Wednesday, Nov. 26, three Christmas Giving Trees will be located in the hospital mall, upon which visitors may hang a new pair of mittens or gloves, a hat or scarf. Hangers for attaching the items to the trees will be available.

"Two years ago we started the Mittens for Munchkins program to give Parkview Huntington Hospital employees an opportunity to help our little ones in the community stay warm over the cold winter months," said Darlene Garrett, Parkview Huntington Hospital chief operating officer. "Last year we invited the community to join us and the response was overwhelming. Because of that response, we're adding a third, larger tree to accommodate all of the donations we receive. So it is our pleasure to again invite the community to play a part in this special giving program."

Sock hats and gloves are available for purchase in the hospital's Gift Shop, located near the front entrance to the hospital. The gifts will be distributed to families by the Salvation Army of Huntington County following the hospital's giving deadline of Monday, Dec. 15.

SCHOLARSHIP WORKSHOP

A workshop to assist 4-H members in completing state 4-H scholarship applications will be held on Thursday, December 4, 6:30-8:30 pm. It will cover an overview of 4-H scholarships available at the state level which are due by January 15, 2009 and some detailed worksheets for youth to use in completing applications. Youth planning to attend this workshop must contact the County Extension Office no later than Tuesday, December 2 by 4:00 pm to ensure sufficient handouts are available for participants.

For more information, contact Linda Aldridge, Extension Educator, 4-H Youth, at the Purdue Extension – Huntington County office, located at 354 N Jefferson Street – Suite 202, Courthouse Annex, Huntington or calling 260-358-4826 or email laldridg@purdue.edu.

HOSTS NEEDED

4-Hers in Northern Indiana have the opportunity to explore the "and my world" part of the 4-H pledge next summer with 4-Hers from Poland. For two weeks in June, approximately 20 Polish 4-Hers will come to Indiana with their accompanying leaders. They will live with Indiana 4-H host families, participate in 4-H activities, and learn about daily living in Indiana.

As the bar for college applications continues to rise, a 4-H international experience while in high school is significant. Past program participants have found it useful for college applications and scholarships.

Host families are needed for youth ages 12 – 18 and adults. Families must be willing to share their home and community and involve them in 4-H meetings and activities. Applications are due February 1.

For a copy of the application, contact the Purdue Extension – Huntington County Office at 260-358-4826 or laldridg@purdue.edu. For questions about the program you can also contact the Purdue International 4-H Coordinator, Lee Stanish, at lstanish@purdue.edu.

SWINE MEETING

The Huntington County Swine Boosters will meet on Monday, December 1 at 7:00 pm in the Family Living Building at Hier's Park. The discussion items include cooker upgrades/replacement, barn improvements at Hier's Park, 4-H Awards, and other old/new business. For more information, contact Purdue Extension – Huntington County Office, 354 N Jefferson – Suite 202, Huntington or call 260-358-4826.

HOLIDAY HOURS

Salamonie Reservoir's Interpretive Center will be open during the usual hours of 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. every day except Nov. 27, Dec. 25 and Jan. 1 this holiday season.

Holiday shopping can be done at the Interpretive Center. Annual Entrance Passes, DNR Lake Permits, and Annual Horse Tags will be available for 2009 starting Nov. 24. Browse through Salamonie ornaments, souvenirs, shirts, field guides, hiking sticks, nature toys, jewelry, home décor and more.

The Otter Run Tradin' Post will offer a 10-percent-off sale on Dec. 14, during the holiday open house. All merchandise, except the passes, permits and tags, is included in the sale.

The barrier-free building features exhibits, floor-to-ceiling windows in the wildlife viewing area, and staff to answer your questions. The center is located in Lost Bridge West Recreation Area on Highway 105 in western Huntington County.

Visit dnr.IN.gov for more information about the Upper Wabash Interpretive Services.

MR SCROOGE

Huntington University will present "Mr. Scrooge" at 9 p.m. on Dec. 5 and at 2 and 7:30 p.m. on Dec. 6 in the Studio Theatre of the Merillat Centre for the Arts.

"Mr. Scrooge" is a "Town Hall Production," a project of the university's Theatre Ensemble course.

"Mr. Scrooge" features a book by Richard Morris and Ted Wood, music by Dolores Claman, and lyrics by Richard Morris. This production tells the familiar holiday tale of Ebenezer Scrooge, a cold-hearted miser who is visited by three ghosts on a magical Christmas Eve. The ghosts, by revealing Scrooge's past, present and future, initiate a transformation that opens Scrooge's heart and warms it to the beauty of kindness, humanity and the spirit of Christmas. "Mr. Scrooge" features all the classic Dickens' characters including Jacob Marley, the Cratchit family, the Fezziwigs and, of course, Tiny Tim.

General admission is $2, and tickets may be purchased in advance or at the door. For more information or for tickets, call the Merillat Centre for the Arts Box Office at (260) 359-4261.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT

Music meant to celebrate the spirit of Christmas will be performed by Huntington University's Department of Music. Four groups will present an evening of Christmas music in a shared concert titled "Celebrating the Light." The concert will take place on at 7:30 p.m. on Dec. 5 in the Zurcher Auditorium of the Merillat Centre for the Arts.

The Wind Ensemble, directed by Dr. Robert Lynn, will perform "Christmas Time" and "From Whom All Blessings Flow," along with other selections. The Women's Chorale, directed by Joni Killian, will perform various pieces including "Jinglin' Bells" and "A Joyful Alleluia." The Handbell Choir, directed by Darlene Burkett, will perform two handbell solos titled "Bring a Torch" and "Good Christian Men, Rejoice." A handbell duet titled "A Christmas Fantasy," along with a handbell quartet titled "A Yuletide Celebration," will be performed. A piano duo, "God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen" with "Joy to the World," also will be presented.

Tickets are available through the Merillat Centre for the Arts Box Office by called (260) 359-4261. General admission tickets are priced at $5, and tickets are $3 for students, seniors, and Huntington University faculty and staff.

GARDENER TRAINING

A Purdue Master Gardener Program training series will be offered in 2009 for residents of Huntington County and surrounding areas. Classes will be held at the Huntington County Courthouse Annex on Monday and Wednesday evenings from 6:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. starting January 12th and ending March 11th. Participants will be exposed to a wide range of subjects including soil and plant science, diagnosis of plant problems, pesticide safety, and culture of vegetable, flower, landscape, and fruit plants. Materials and expenses for the series of classes cost $100 per participant. The deadline for submitting applications is December 15th.

If you'd like an application to join our league of volunteers or have questions about the program, contact Ed Farris, Agriculture and Natural Resource Educator, Purdue Extension – Huntington County Office, 354 N Jefferson – Suite 202, Huntington by calling 260-358-4826.
