GRANT FOR WVFD

U.S. Senator Evan Bayh announced today that the Warren Volunteer Fire Department from, Warren will receive $18,783 from the Assistance to Firefighters Grant to update their equipment and increase the effectiveness of their operations.

"This money means better equipment for Warren firefighters, which means greater safety for Indiana communities," Senator Bayh said. "This grant is particularly welcome right now, as fire departments are struggling to find the funds to continue their regular duties while stepping up their role as First Responders in homeland defense as well."

According to the President of the Warren Firefighters Association, David Miller, the department will use the funding to replace items such as a failing pager and three obsolete portable radios which are used by firefighters in emergency situations to communicate with each other.

Miller said that the new communication devices will have channel guards, allowing their team to communicate with all other local forces as well.

In addition, Miller said that their department will purchase new firefighter training manuals and a large diameter 700-foot fire hose to help water flow more efficiently. The department also plans to purchase a hose pack that can be carried up to 2nd and 3rd story floor buildings, such as the two hotels and one nursing home in their area.

"Thanks to this grant, our team can purchase much needed items that we otherwise couldn't afford," Miller said. "This grant will undoubtedly help our department provide better services to the town of Warren, Salamonie Township and Jackson Townships, and Wells County."

The funding comes from the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, which includes the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) and the U.S. Fire Administration (USFA). The Assistance to Firefighters Grant Program will distribute over 8,000 awards worth nearly $750 million in direct assistance to firefighters throughout the country during FY2004.

FESTIVAL MEETING

Bring your ideas and comments to the August meeting of the Salamonie Summer Festival committee, 6:30pm at the Knight Bergman Center on August 16th.

BLOOD DRIVES

At the beginning of July, blood supplies were already at their lowest point of the year, with most of the country falling below a 2-day, and many below a one-day supply of most blood types.

Inventory today is even lower. In order to help combat summer blood shortages and ensure that blood needs are met the American Red Cross is holding the following blood drives in Huntington County:

* Thursday, August 26, at the Lafontaine Center from 12 noon until 6 pm. The LaFontaine Center is located at 208 W. State in Huntington.

* Monday, August 30, at United Technologies from 11 a.m. until 4 p.m. United Technologies is located at 3650 West 200 North in Huntington.

* Tuesday, August 31, at .Evangelical United Methodist Church from 1 p.m. until 7 p.m. Evangelical United Methodist Church is located at 1000 Flaxmill Rd. in Huntington.

* Tuesday, August 31, at United Methodist Memorial Home from 12 noon until 5 p.m. United Methodist Memorial Home is located at 801 Huntington Ave. in Warren.

If you are at least 17 years of age, weigh a minimum of 110 pounds and are in good general health, you may be eligible to donate blood. All presenting donors need to present positive identification. For more information or to schedule your blood donation appointment, call 1-800-GIVE-LIFE (1-800-448-3543).

AVOID A STROKE

Residents living in and around the Warren, Ind., community can be screened to reduce their risk of having a stroke. Life Line Screening will be at the Knight Bergman Center on August 25th. The site is located at 132 S Nancy Street in Warren. Appointments will begin at 9:00 a.m.

A stroke, also known as a "brain attack", is ranked as the third leading killer in the world, and the second among women. Through preventive screenings the risk of having a stroke can be greatly reduced.

Screenings are fast, painless and low cost. They involve the use of ultrasound technology, and scan for potential health problems related to: blocked arteries which can lead to a stroke, aortic aneurysms which can lead to a ruptured aorta, and hardening of the arteries in the legs, which are a strong predictor of heart disease. Also offered for men and women, is a bone density screening to assess their risk for osteoporosis.

"We are so thankful and feel so fortunate for the Life Line Screening program. Perhaps it saved my husband's life." Mrs. Peg Yarnelle, Wabash, Ind.

Each screening requires ten minutes or less to complete. A complete vascular screening package, including the Stroke/Carotid Artery, Abdominal Aortic Aneurysm and Ankle Brachial Index (hardening of the arteries) screenings is $99. Sign-up for a complete vascular package; include the osteoporosis screening and pay only $125.

Life Line Screening was established in 1993, and has since become the nation's leading provider of vascular screenings. Over 45 ultrasound teams are on staff to travel to your local community bringing the screenings to you. These non-invasive, inexpensive and painless, ultrasound tests help people identify their risk for stroke, vascular diseases or osteoporosis early enough for their physician to begin preventive procedures.

For more information regarding the screenings, or to schedule an appointment, call 1-800-643-6188. Pre-registration is required.

KUDOS, KICKS & KARATS

PAYPAL DOES NOT WANT YOU TO UPDATE YOUR ACCOUNT OR CREDIT CARD

NEITHER DOES EBAY OR YOUR BANK

Your bank doesn't want you to update your password or your credit card. Paypal doesn't want you to do that. Neither does Ebay. But chances are you will receive an e-mail requesting you to do just that.

It's called a 'spoof' e-mail and no matter how official it looks, you can be sure of one thing: It was sent to you by a criminal who wants to steal your money or your identity.

These days it is easy for any criminal to copy the Paypal or Ebay logo and insert it into an e-mail. So just because an e-mail looks and sounds official doesn't mean it is.

How can you tell if an e-mail is really from Paypal?
 The first way is content. Paypal, Ebay, and your bank will never ask you in an e-mail to update any information, not your password, credit card, or even your address. They will never send you such an e-mail.

The second way is by how you are addressed in an e-mail. If the e-mail calls you "our valued customer" or something similar, and does not address you by your own name, chances are the e-mail is fake. But in the future criminal techniques might improve so that they will be able to do this. So watch out.

The third way to verify that no such e-mail is from Paypal, Ebay, or your bank, is to go to your browser (Internet Explorer, for instance), open a new window, type in "paypal" or "ebay" into the address field, and hit "go" or enter. Log into your account and see if the company is asking you for the information.

Remember, never click on a link from an e-mail. If the e-mail is fake, you will be taken to a fake site and anything you type in from there will be captured by a criminal.

NOT EASY BUT WORTHWHILE: PROTECTING YOUR PASSWORDS

A survey by Symantic shows that 62 percent of computer users use the same password for everything. This is definitely dangerous. Even worse, putting sticky note full of passwords on the monitor.

Computer users are asked for passwords everywhere. A password to log on, one to check e-mail, another to pay bills, and still another to refill a prescription. Memorizing passwords is best, but it becomes a problem when you have many of them and have to change them once a year or more.

Passwords that mix numbers, letters and punctuation marks are best, but hardest to remember. If you have many that you have to use, you probably need a written record. But placing them all in an unprotected text file is not the way to go. Some suggestions:

- Write them on an index card and keep it in a safe place.
- Use obscure letters. Don't use your dog's name and then chat online about your favorite dog names! Be sure to add a 3-digit number if you do use a common household name.
- Buy a password manager. They save passwords safely encrypted behind a master password. (Mac OSX has this built in.)
- Get a fingerprint reader. To keep unauthorized people from using your PC, the VeriFP 2101 Fingerprint Reader lets you log on by placing your finger on the reader. It can be set to work with multiple users. Cost is $180.

BBB WARNING

The Better Business Bureau system is issuing a national alert to warn consumers and businesses about two questionable operations that are falsely using the BBB name to trick victims.

One business is perpetrating an advance fee loan scam that targets consumers and businesses with poor credit records. It has provided as a reference fictitious BBB phone numbers that are answered by representatives who falsely claim to be with the Better Business Bureau and provide a positive report on the business in question.

The other entity, which appears to be a telemarketer, is contacting local businesses, falsely stating to be from the BBB and calling about a complaint or to update BBB files. The telemarketer proceeds to ask questions that have nothing to do with BBB business and leaves as a contact number 1.800.CALL.BBB.

"Bureaus across the country are reporting calls from victims. These scammers are falsely using the Better Business Bureau name to try to gain credibility with potential victims," said Ken Hunter, president and CEO of the Council of Better Business Bureaus. "We urge people to double-check with their local BBB whenever they receive a dubious phone call or see the BBB name tied to a questionable promotion. We're easy to find in the telephone directory or on the web at www.bbb.org."

Advance Fee Loan Outfit Uses False BBB Phone Numbers and Fake BBB Report

Kirkland Russell and Thomson (KRT), supposedly located in Houston, advertise loans to individuals and businesses. KRT representatives claim that the business is a member of the BBB and suggest that interested customers call fictitious phone numbers for the "Southwestern Division of the BBB in Oklahoma City" and the BBB of Metropolitan Houston to request the company's BBB report.

"The company is using the BBB name as a shield for its business. These are not the phone numbers of the BBBs in Oklahoma City and Houston. And, neither Bureau has issued a satisfactory report on KRT. The company has produced and is distributing a fake, glowing BBB reliability report," Hunter warns.

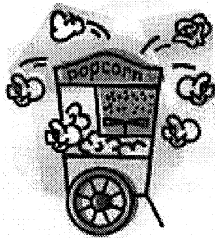

According to complaints to the BBB, KRT tells customers that they have been approved for a loan and must send a fee for "insurance." KRT asks that the fee, often about $2,000, be wired to various addresses in Canada and New York. Consumers are required to submit personal information, such as Social Security number, bank account number and pay stubs.

"People have not received their loan, nor have they had their money refunded," the BBB in Houston states. Consumers in Texas, Oklahoma, Florida and other states have been targeted.

BBB staff members have confirmed that there is no business by the name of Kirkland Russell and Thomas at the company-provided address in Houston. The Council of Better Business Bureaus sent a

TOOTH TIPS

By: Dr. Kevin J DeaKyne DDS, PC
Dental Work after a Joint Replacement
Do I need an antibiotic??

A. Good dental health is important to everyone, but for people with artificial joints, a visit with the dentist can be especially significant. The bacteria that cause infections in the teeth or gums can easily travel through the bloodstream and settle in an artificial joint. This can lead to more problems than just a swollen gum or toothache.

The ADA (American Dental Association) and AAOS (American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons) has developed guidelines or recommendations for patients with artificial joints and their need for preventative antibiotics (Premed) for dental procedures.

The dental procedures that involve high levels of bacteria where a preventive antibiotic would be indicated are: Extractions, Periodontal (Gum disease procedures), Dental implant placement, Root canals, Injections of local anesthetic, Regular cleaning of teeth or implants where bleeding is anticipated.

Conditions where preventive antibiotics are indicated before dental procedures: Joint replacement less than 2 yrs age, Insulin dependent (Type I) Diabetes, Immuno suppressed conditions, Inflammatory types of arthritis such as rheumatoid or lupu erythematosus, Previous infection in artificial joint, Hemophilia, Undernourished or Malnourished.

Your dentist and orthopedic surgeon will work together to determine need and type of antibiotic that is appropriate for your treatment. When in doubt, consult your dentist.

letter to KRT Financial Group regarding BBB trademark infringement and false advertising; it has not received a response.

The BBB warns individuals and businesses not to pay in advance for a loan and to never send personal financial information to unknown businesses.

Shady Telemarketer Gives 1.800.CALL.BBB Phone Number BBB members in Arkansas, California, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Nebraska, Nevada, Ohio, Texas, Utah, and Washington have reported that they were contacted by an individual posing as a BBB employee.

The callers generally claim to be phoning about a BBB complaint or to "update" BBB files. They attempt to solicit information that is not normally required in order to conduct business with or be a member of the BBB. The callers ask for names of various managers (the head of finance or information technology) and the number of work stations at that business location. Businesses have reported that the callers became rude and used threatening language when questioned about the BBB's need for such information or the nature of the complaint.

The callers leave a 1.800.CALL.BBB (225-5222) as their contact phone number. That phone number, which is NOT owned by the BBB, is constantly busy. Some businesses report that the caller gave the name "Dave Sebastian". Other names that have been used are Claude Ashley and Frank. One caller spoke with a foreign accent.

"Businesses need to be aware that any representatives from the BBB would clearly identify themselves and leave a working phone number. We seek the voluntary cooperation of businesses to resolve disputes and would not hesitate to provide details concerning a complaint," Hunter said. "If you receive a call from anyone representing the BBB and are unsure as to their authenticity, we urge you not to disclose any information and to contact your local BBB immediately."

The BBB in Colton, CA contacted the business listed in several Internet 800 yellow page directories as the owner of the 800.CALL.BBB number. It disclaimed any knowledge of the calls or individuals initiating them.

BBBs typically send complaints to businesses in writing. BBB staff members are forthright about who filed the complaint and how to reach the Bureau, and are always willing to assist business and consumers to amicably resolve disputes that may arise.

The BBB of Northeastern Indiana encourages consumers to always check on a business before committing anything to them!

COUNCIL NOTES

The next Council meeting will be Aug. 18.

VACATION ON THE FARM

It seems impossible that another year has gone by and it's time for the "Stanley Sister's" vacation again. Our plans were to go to Mona and Jim Pinkerton's recently remodeled farm home near Rochester. They raise a lot of pigs on several farms and it just happened that there were no pigs on this farm at the time. Vacation plans for 10 sisters takes a lot of coordination... who's going to drive, who is taking what items, what time are we leaving etc. Four of us left on Saturday morning to get beds made up and groceries stocked and by Saturday evening everyone had arrived.

We had three bedrooms with a very large walk in closet, which provided ample room for sleeping. A large living room with two sofas also was used and every one was very comfortable. The kitchen was large enough for the many cooks to prepare meals, which were served on the long harvest table. With only one bathroom, however, there was no privacy, but that was okay as we are all used to sharing.

This is the 13th year we have gone on vacation together and as we get older, it seems we do less "running around" and just enjoy being together visiting and playing games. We do a lot of cooking and it is always interesting because we never plan meals. Someone suggests fixing a certain dish, then a couple of us mention dishes to go with it and before we know it a meal is ready. Brenda always brings Zucchini Pie, Pat brings Zucchini Bread, Rita or Mary usually brings Chocolate Chip Cookies and Janet brings the "fixins" for Chicken & Noodles. About every night we played Card Bingo and Card Golf. We tried other games, but they take too much "brain power" and we couldn't talk and play at the same time. It gets pretty noisy at times, especially when Pat is losing. Also, Brenda, our witty sisters, keeps us all laughing.

On Sunday we attended the local Methodist Church which was a very friendly church. After dinner we enjoyed the fresh country air and just "lazed" around. Monday was another lazy day, which was spent in the antique and boutique shops in Rochester after our morning devotions.

By the way, Mona did mention they had unexpectedly received a call that they would be getting some pigs. We thought these were baby pigs and even though there were almost 4000....no problem. WRONG! By the time we arrived home on Monday, things had changed...mainly the wind. We couldn't get in the house and shut the doors quick enough. We were certainly glad that we had convinced Pat it was going to rain and she shouldn't hang laundry out. On Wednesday we took a tour of the pig farm and learned that the pigs weren't really babies, they were "feeder pigs" and there is a difference. It wasn't actually as bad as it sounds except to our sisters that were really "city dwellers". All of us living around Warren have often experienced the pig odor.

Tuesday we were up very early to make our annual trip to Shipshewanna. It was a beautiful day and we were reminded of God's greatness as we did our devotions during the drive. We packed our lunch and at noontime we enjoyed "show & tell". Laura & Jean, our two older sisters spent a lot of time sitting in the van visiting while the rest of us shopped. (Thanks gals for being so patient.) Immediately following our shopping, Kate and Rita had to come home. Rita returned on Wednesday evening, however, Kate's vacation ended due to a couple of circumstances which prevented her from returning. (We sure missed you Kate!)

We didn't plan on shopping so much, but there were three weddings coming up and 2 Grandmas and a Mother needed dresses, so we shopped on Wednesday and Thursday. We thoroughly enjoyed watching Janet, Mona and Evelyn model all the dresses we picked out for them at the stores. (At one point I hid in the store because I thought the clerks were going to kick us out for laughing so much.) It was so difficult making decisions that Janet and Mona ended up with 2 dresses each.

Each year we keep saying we aren't going to take so much. It is almost impossible to get everything in the vans when we come home. We lucked out this year as Rita and Kate took some home during the week. Mike, Mona's son who takes care of the pigs, had planted a large garden, so we picked fresh green beans, cucumbers and peas. We owe Mike many, many thanks, as he lived in the "hut" while we stayed in the nice comfortable house. We left his with enough leftovers the he probably won't have to cook for a week. (I hope he likes leftovers.) Thanks again Mike, you are a special blessing.

Those enjoying the vacation were Laura Smithley, Jean Pilgrim, Evelyn Lindstrom, Pat Furnish, Mary Shaw, Janet Daugherty, Mona Pinkerton, Brenda Kendall, Kate King, Rita Benefiel and all of our husbands who stayed at home and "did as they pleased."

MOVES TO UMMH

Keith D. Davis who has been a United Methodist Minister for 40 years has moved into a new Villa at the United Methodist Memorial Home as of May 1st. The Villa is located in a new golf course that is being built by the Home. It is located approximately one mile north of the main campus of the Home. For one to qualify for residence here, one must be 55 years old.

Keith lost his lovely wife in a car accident in December of 2002. He has made the decision to join the retirement community at Warren, IN, where he will serve as a public relation person. The Bishop of the North Indiana Conference Cabinet has approved of this opportunity of service. He will be speaking in the local churches with the minister's approval.

The Villa is owned by the United Methodist Memorial Home thus freeing the resident of maintenance, insurance, taxes, lawn care and snow removal. The Villas features two and three bedrooms and 1300, 1500 square feet respectively. Minor changes can be made in the floor plan to suit the perspective resident.

Keith has served on Conference Boards and committees through the years and 18 years on the Home's Board of Directors. The Churches he served are Garrett Circuit, Concord, Rehoboth, Meese, Butler Center and Cedar
