GOT KIDS??

Events of recent weeks have caused both parents and children to stop and think about the future of our world and our place in it. Parents are asking questions about how they can become better at raising their kids in this world and how they can be better prepared to answer some often tough questions.

To help parents learn more about how to help our kids become good parents and citizens themselves some day, Warren United Methodist Church, in cooperation with Youth Services Bureau of Huntington County, is hosting "Being a Better Parent," a series of workshops beginning September 27 at 7:00 p.m.

The first workshop, "Preschool and Elementary, My Dear," Sept. 27, is for parents who have preschool and elementary school aged children; parents with adolescents and teens are invite to attend the "Teen Challenges" workshop, October 4, and a "Family Building" workshop will be held Oct. 18, for those parents who want to learn practical tips on ways to improve an already healthy family.

All workshops will be held at Warren UMC and are free of charge; childcare will be available. Parents need not attend all workshops; each workshop stands alone.

If you have questions or need more information call the church office at 375.3871 or visit our website at www.delphi.com/WarrenUM.

Warren United Methodist Church is "Growing UP and Reaching OUT...in Christ!" from the corner of Third and Main Streets in beautiful Downtown Warren. Worship every Sunday morning at 10:30. Bible classes for all ages at 9:30; Kid's Klub every Wednesday, 6:30-7:30.

VAN BUREN COUNCIL

In the absence of president Tony Manry vice president Marvin Surber conducted the Sept. 19 meeting of the Van Buren Town Council. The meeting was called to order at 7 pm with the Pledge to the American Flag.

Minutes of the previous meeting were approved as submitted.

A citizen in attendance was still having a problem with a dog in their yard. It was believed from the actions of the dog it may be flea infested. It was reported the dog owner had been ticketed.

It was advised that all dogs in town are to be tied up or penned in.

It was decided that flags be displayed in the downtown area because of the recent disaster in New York and Washington DC. It was noted there had been complaints in the past of torn flags, but it was decided to display those in the best condition.

Council voted in favor of four Resolutions, including: Resolution 1-2001, policy for water/wastewater adjustments; Resolution 2-2001, use of Town Credit cards; Resolution 3-2001, Town cell phones; Resolution 4-2001, fixed assets of Van Buren.

A letter had been received from Weavers Popcorn thanking Council for their assistance in planning for a new fire pump. Weavers

PURDUE EXTENSION SERVICE CAN HELP

The world as we knew it changed on September 11! The impact of the terrorist tragedies will continue to unfold for months. The nation has returned to work, the stock market is open, professional sports teams have resumed play, and airplanes are flying. But we have not returned to normal.

U.S. flags are flying. Americans are showing that just as our forefathers had the forbearance to face great challenges, risks, and sacrifices without losing faith or hope — so do we! Families are encouraged to live each moment from the heart and soul and cherish each and every family member.

The Purdue Cooperative Extension Service of Huntington County has many resources to help families at this time. Remember that children will have questions for months to come. It is not enough to talk to them once or twice. They will not forget this, just as adults will not forget that tragic day.

The Extension Office has several angles on Talking With Children About Terrorism. The Extension Office is located in the Courthouse, Room 209. These articles are available free of charge. They are also available at the following web site: www.purdue.edu/eden/disasters. Here are other web sites:

Topics include "Talking to Your Kids About War: Advice for Concerned Parents," "Children, War toys and Violent Games", and Children and Fear." <http://www.e-answersonline.org>

Included here are several lesson plans for different ages and grade levels dealing with terrorism, tolerance, peace, and disaster preparedness from PBS <http://www.pbs.org/americaresponds/educators.html>.

 The American Red Cross has a web site where people can download a sympathy card personalize it, and send it to the American Red Cross. www.tallytown.com/redcross/Television is continually broadcasting information to help families deal with this crisis. Remember, it is not only the children that are hurting. This affects Americans of all ages, including the elderly. This is just a small sampling of web sites that have information.

If you do not have access to the web, contact the Extension Office or your local library to ask for the information you are seeking.

Plan some special family nights with your family. Show them the love and support they need at this time. Remember extended family members that may be living a distance. Keep in contact frequently with them.

decided not to pursue the project. A representative of Dish Connection talked to Council about their company.

A letter had been received from the Marion-Grant County Humane Society stating that if Van Buren plans to use their services in 2002 they request payments from the past.

During discussion of the letter Council agreed they were dissatisfied with services of the Society. It was suggested a Grant County Veterinarian be contacted about conditions at the Shelter. It was noted the County provided the service, but there was never a fee. Actions on the matter were delayed until a later date.

The Town of Van Buren had received a Safety Award for the year 2000.

Officer Pat Collins gave his report to Council. He said the new 2002 cruiser is now in service.

A one-day seminar is scheduled at the Grant County Sheriff's Department. The event will be held on two different days, Oct. 9 and 11, in order that all officers may attend.

A list of junk and abandoned vehicles is to be compiled.

The next Council meeting will be held on Wednesday, October 3.

NEW AT THE LIBRARY

New books received at the Warren Public Library are:

Adult fiction: The Golden Angel (House of Winslow) by Morris; The Blue Last by Grimes; Mercy by Garwood; September Song by Greeley; Black House by King; Safely Home by Alcorn; Child of Grace by Copeland; Ashes & Ice by Peterson; Heart of the Sea by Roberts.

Adult non-fiction: Patches of Godlight by Karon; Between the Lines by Hershiser; Mending Your Heart in a Broken World by Clairmont.

STAMP COLLECTING MONTH

Children and adults have an opportunity to join other stamp collectors across the country in a salute to the world's most popular hobby when the U.S. Postal Service celebrates National Stamp Collecting Month with the issuance of the "That's All Folks!" commemorative stamp on October 1. The stamp, featuring Porky Pig, will go on sale in Warren on Oct. 2.

"Stamps are fascinating for adults as well as children. They offer a lifelong educational experience and an opportunity for friends and family to share in a relaxing leisure-time activity," said Postmaster Sheryl Horst. "Stamp collecting can be your passport to the world."

Fueled by growing interest in recent popular stamp issues like Peanuts, Baseball's Legendary Playing Fields, Looney Tunes, and Love Letters, the 8-12 age group has become the largest participating group in National Stamp Collecting Month and is considered one of the fastest growing segments of stamp collectors in the United States.

Tips for collecting stamps:

1. Get some stamps! Any Post Office has new stamps. Most will have some of the latest stamps issued. It's also easy to order stamps from the U.S. Postal Service Web site at www.usps.com/shop or call toll-free 1-800-STAMP-24. Other ways to get stamps are to trade with friends, ask family members or neighbors for stamps from old letters or postcards, visit a stamp dealer, or check stamp collecting sites on the Internet. There are also stamp shows where people come from all over the country to add to their collections. The AWPEX 2001 Stamp

Show will be Oct. 27 and 28 in Fort Wayne.

2. Organize your collection. Stamp collections often express a person's unique personality. Some collectors choose stamps from all over the world or just one country. Others pick specific topics, like animals, sports, or history.

3. Protect and display your collection. Every collector has a special way of protecting stamps. For individual stamps or stamp panes, consider a stamp album or three-ring binder. Don't tape or glue stamps. Instead, slip them into specially designed plastic pages with pockets. Or if the album has paper pages, use hinges or mounts.

You can create a stamp collection about almost anything. Let the stamps be your guide!

CLASS OF '36

Members from the graduating class of 1936 had a get-together at Knight Civic Center on Sunday, September 9th. At 12:30 a lovely dinner was catered by a Sunday school class of the Boehmer Church.

Marie Wood read 3 letters from members not able to attend. John Philip Shafer conducted a short business meeting. It was decided to make plans to get together at the same time next year. Elaine Thompson, who was buried on Saturday, was a member of the class of 1936.

October 20 - Local church bazaar.

November 2 - Jefferson Center

women will present Church Women United World Community Day program "Sound the Shofar/Jubilee: Forgive All Debts; Set People Free". Meeting to be held at Zion UMC, Fort Wayne. Money will be collected for blankets for Church World Service.

Our program was presented by Jackie Sunderman "Repairers of the Breach." Focus scriptures were Jeremiah 29:4-7; Isaiah 58:9b, 10, 12; and James 2:1-5. Focus statement: What must it be like to be exiled? The term "exile" is not commonly used today, but exile is not an uncommon condition in much of the world. It seems as if our cities, towns and communities are increasingly populated by strangers, people in exile from their homes who are unfamiliar culturally, socially, economically, spiritually and intellectually with the settings in which they find themselves. Jeremiah challenges the relocated Israelites to seek welfare where they are; to consider themselves members of the community and to assume all the rights, privileges and responsibilities that community membership provides.

Barbara Hart gave the grace/ for the luncheon provided by hostesses Esther Gray, Carmen Wilks and herself.

Treasurer's reports were given and Secretary's reports were read.

An update on the gum ball machines was given by Jerry Boyer. The club voted to replace a shrub at the Knight Civic Center and the group put a new American flag on the pole. The group voted to donate money to Salamonie School for its "Coins for our Country" project; later all donations will be given to the American Red Cross to assist them in the work of the recent plane attacks.

Joan and Jerry Boyer were thanked for the time spent in mulching the plantings around the Knight Civic Center building.

October 31, Wednesday, the annual community-wide free Fall Fest will be held at the Knight Civic Center. This event will be the same night as the annual trick-or-trick community evening. The local boy scout troop will be assisting in Kiwanis activities that evening.

Tom Scheer, Lt. Governor of the Wabash Valley District, attended both meetings. At one meeting he brought three Huntington club members with him.

At the second September meeting a buffet breakfast was served to several guests and the membership present. Thanks to Jackie Huffman, Joan Boyer, and Lou Ann Shafer.

Projects and possible grants for the Knight Civic Center were reported by Marilyn Morrison.

How to Help Your Lawn Recover From One Tough Summer!

The Problem:

No doubt about it, this has been one tough summer to grow a nice lawn. The dry weather has left many lawns brown, and dormant. Diseases like Dollar Spot and Rust have taken their toll leaving dead spots all over. And to add insult to injury, insects like Webworms, Billbugs, and Grubs have been chewing on your grass like they're eating at some local country buffet!

All of this has left your lawn in sad shape.

The Solution:

Feed your lawn a helping of LawnScience premium lawn food. Fall feedings of LawnScience will get your lawn back into shape by thickening turf stands, developing deep root systems.
