Thought for the Week: Sooner or later we all quote our mothers. Bern Williams

LIFE'S LESSONS FROM YOUR MOTHER

by Bryan Golden

Your mother tried to teach you some valuable lessons. Mom has a unique ability to impart essential wisdom. Unfortunately, most of us were too young to really appreciate their value. Mother's Day is a great time to review the following advice you got when you were a kid.

You can be whatever you want to be.

You have no limitations. The whole world is open to you. Your future is ahead of you. You can accomplish whatever you set your mind to. It's ok to dream.

Be nice to your friends and they will be nice to you.

People respond to the way you treat them. If you are mean and selfish, no one will want to play with you. Share your toys and don't be a bully. Be considerate of the feelings of others.

Do your homework and you will get good grades.

Success takes work. If you don't put in the effort, you won't reap the rewards. Those who work hard will succeed.

Clean your room now.

Get things done today and you won't have to worry about them. If you let things pile up, it will be difficult to catch up.

You can play once your chores are done.

Get your work done before you take a break. Then you can relax and have a good time.

Stay in school.

If you don't get an education, your opportunities will be limited. Don't drop out of school. The more you learn, the more you benefit.

Sticks and stones will break your bones but names will never hurt you.

It doesn't matter what other people say. Don't allow others to upset you. There will always be mean people. Don't pay attention to them.

Don't waste your time.

Time goes by very fast. Don't wait to pursue your dreams.

Be thankful for what you have.

There are many who are not as fortunate as you. Be grateful for your home and family. It doesn't matter what someone else has.

Don't complain.

Whining is annoying. If you have something to say, say it. If you complain all the time, no one will want to listen to you.

HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY!

STAMP OUT HUNGER

On Saturday, May 11, 2013, Campbell Soup Company will join forces with the National Association of Letter Carriers to support Feeding America and help Stamp Out Hunger across America. Now in its 21st year, the annual food drive helps provide assistance to the millions of Americans struggling to put food on the table.

The Stamp Out Hunger food drive, held on the second Saturday in May, benefits Feeding America, the nation's largest domestic hunger-relief organization. In 2012, letter carriers collected food donations from 10,000 communities, helping to put millions of meals on the tables of Americans in need.

Last year's drive also marked the ninth consecutive year that people donated more than 70 million pounds of food to the Stamp Out Hunger food drive. But, with more than 50 million people, including nearly 17 million children, facing hunger in America - the fight for hunger-relief continues.

"The Stamp Out Hunger food drive is important for our local communities because it helps stock food banks and pantries for summer, a time when there's an increased need for food assistance, especially for children who are out of school," said Fredric V. Rolando, NALC president. "The letter carriers are committed to supporting the drive by picking up and delivering food donations to local Feeding America food banks and hunger-relief organizations in their markets."

Nick Cannon, multi-talented entertainer and member of the Feeding America Entertainment Council, is the national spokesperson for the Stamp Out Hunger food drive for the third consecutive year. The drive particularly hits home for Cannon, who experienced hunger and relied on food pantries as a child.

"Feeding America is grateful to all the letter carriers and all sponsors who help make the Stamp Out Hunger food drive possible," said Bob Aiken, president and CEO of Feeding America. "With one in six Americans living at risk of hunger, our food banks are stretched thin and providing food assistance to nearly six million people each week. Food donations are crucial to our goal of a hunger-free America."

Campbell Soup Company, a long-time supporter of the drive, and its partners produced post cards and grocery bags that will be delivered to more than 75 million homes across the country as a reminder and a means to participate in the drive. In addition, Campbell will again support this year's food collection effort by donating one million pounds of food - more than 800,000 meals - to Feeding America food banks.

"Campbell is committed to the success of the Stamp Out Hunger food drive and will continue to rally support from coast-to-coast," said Denise Morrison, Campbell Soup Company's president and chief executive officer. "It's unfortunate that millions of Americans, especially so many children, continue to struggle with hunger. We strongly encourage people across the country to participate on May 11 to help provide relief for our community members in need."

To participate in the Stamp Out Hunger food drive, residents are encouraged to leave a sturdy bag containing non-perishable foods, such as canned soup, canned vegetables, pasta, peanut butter, rice or cereal, next to their mailbox prior to the time of regular mail delivery on Saturday, May 11. The nation's 175,000 letter carriers, representing nearly 1,500 NALC branches in more than 10,000 communities, will collect these food donations as they deliver the mail and take them to a local Feeding America food bank or hunger-relief organization.

TASTE OF SPRING THANKS!

A tremendous "Thank You" to all of those that came out to join us last Saturday evening for the Fourth Annual "A Taste of Spring" event. We had a wonderful crowd in attendance for our fundraising event that was filled with food, drinks, fun, friends & prizes. We are blessed to have so many generous businesses and individuals from Warren and the surrounding area who have helped make this event a success over that last 4 years. Everyone in attendance was entered into the door prize drawings where there were 20 winners throughout the evening. The silent auction was full of exceptional offerings including a 42" Smart TV provided by Citizens Telephone; Hot Air Balloon ride for 2 provided by PNC Bank; Warren Area Business Gift Cards worth $200+ provided by iAB Bank; four Notre Dame tickets & four Colts tickets provided by Pastor Scott Nedberg; an adult bike provided by DeWeese Bike Shop; more than 13 handcrafted items from Courtyard Studio; plus so much more! In total, there were 47 auction items to bid on throughout the evening, bringing in over $3,400.

We want to again express our extreme gratitude to our Champagne Sponsors for 2013, which included: Dr. Robert H. Berghoff, DDS; Citizens Telephone; East of Chicago Pizza Co.; Family Life Care; Gebharts Floral Barn; Heritage Pointe/Dogwood Glen; Kim's Katered Affair; Shuttleworth Insurance; T.D. Wall Inc. A special thanks to Gebharts Floral Barn for the beautiful centerpiece that were also used as door prizes at the end of the evening.

A grateful thanks to our return vendors: Satek Winery of Fremont, IN and the Olive Twist of Fort Wayne. The samples from each of these vendors were outstanding, and we look forward to having them back again next year.

Thanks again to all who participated in the Fourth Annual "A Taste of Spring" event! The proceeds from the evening will be used for the Warren Downtown Park Project, which is underway just east of the Post Office—we sincerely appreciate your commitment & dedication to our community.

THE FIRST ANIMAL SHELTER IN THE BIBLE, "NOAH'S ARK"

A lady wanted to know why I had so many cats and dogs. (Only two dogs) and well you know something? It was something in the Bible that made me my faith. It said God put man in charge of all of living animals. For example, there was Noah who had the ark and he collected all the animals for God. So if God made all these animals; then why can't man see? It shows that God loved all his creations, both man and animal. So therefore, next time you see a helpless animal, help that animal if you could. Meaning our animal shelters is filled with helpless animals. People's donations are much appreciated as well to their needed adoptions.

SCAVENGER HUNT

Can you recall the former location of the local business who sold the double dip cone? Do you know where the only Revolutionary War soldier in Huntington County is buried? We are inviting all local residents, businesses, and anyone with an interest in Warren history and adventure, ages 6-106, to join us in a Historic Scavenger Hunt on June 14th from 5-8PM.

The Historic Scavenger Hunt will begin and end at the Knight Bergman Civic Center. Teams of four, including at least one adult, will be given clues that will lead to various historic sites all located within walking distance of downtown. Each team will need to have either a digital camera or cell phone with a camera to take pictures of their group at the various sites to earn points. Teams will win prizes for their success in identifying and locating the correct sites. Extra points will be awarded to teams who perform specific tasks at such locations. Snacks will be offered at the end of the hunt for all participants. The cost to participate is $5/person.

We are looking forward to having all kinds of groups participate in this event, neighboring friends, youth groups, lovers of all things old, golf teams, grandparents & children, colleagues, enjoyers of fresh air, coffee groups, card clubs, 4-H clubs, history buffs, or best friends. Please gather your favorite team of four and register by completing the enrollment form below and returning it along with your registration fees to PNC Bank Downtown Warren (night depository available on Wayne Street or P.O. Box 500)

by June 7th.

If you have any questions or would like to volunteer for this event, please contact Ruth Swanson at 260-750-1798 or drswanson@citiznet.com.

BLOCK PARTY WORKSHOP

The Purdue Extension Office of Huntington County welcomes parents, children and child care providers to participate in an upcoming Block Party Workshop on Tuesday, May 14.

The program, hosted by Life's Little Treasures Childcare in Markle, Ind., is scheduled to begin at 5 p.m., at which parents are invited to stay and play for a bit with their children at the party. A training for childcare providers will follow the Block Party at 6 p.m.

Block Parties were designed for children five and under. The goal of a Block Party is to help young children learn through interactive play, because research shows children retain information best when engaged in an energetic activity. The use of building blocks as a means of learning lays a foundation for early math, reading, science and physical skill retention for kids.

The block parties not only serve as a means for educational development, but as a bonding tool. These workshops allow kids to interact positively with their parents, other adults and their peers. The training that follows the program offers childcare providers and parents a detailed look at the benefits children receive while playing with blocks.

Block Party Workshops are a free service provided by the Purdue Extension Office of

THE UPTOWN GARDENER by Ruth Herring

Asaying we always did as the spring time came was " Spring has sprung the grass has riz and I know where some daisies iz." Don't know where it came from, maybe we made it up but was a common saying this time of year. I would say it to my kids and they would look at me as if I had lost a corner of my brain. Never the less it was a part of my growing up that stayed with me.

Anxious to get flowers in the ground, but for now I think all of us are enjoying the tulips and the beautiful blooming trees that is such vibrant colors this year. I do have some spinach and lettuce in the planters coming up nice, soon I can enjoy one of my favorite spring treats of peanut butter and lettuce sandwiches. So many have told me they never heard of such a thing. We kids thought that was a real treat for lunch or snack growing up and also healthy.

Recently I was on a bus excursion and the subject came about to outhouses and the Saturday nite bath tub/ Monday wash tubs. Some interesting thoughts were passed around. Our outhouse was a deluxe model made by the after the depression time when the president was putting people back to work. It had a cement floor and stool with a wooden seat and even a tp holder. We all thought we were really upscale. Only bad part was dad had it put behind the house and the back yard was downhill. He thought he was doing us a favor by putting a board walk down to it making it look really nice. Going down hill on a board walk when it was raining or snow was not easy. Mom picked many a splinters out of our back side or skinned up knees or elbows needed patched up.

Saturday nite bath time was another ritual we all went thru. That was when mom put newspapers up the windows at the kitchen so all could have privacy. Us kids got a good scrubbing by mom but the older ones including mom and dad we always wondered how they squeezed into the round wash tub.

Just some fun and funny memories of back when.

No recipe this week been having computer problems and not trusting it need to get it out while it is working.

Happy spring

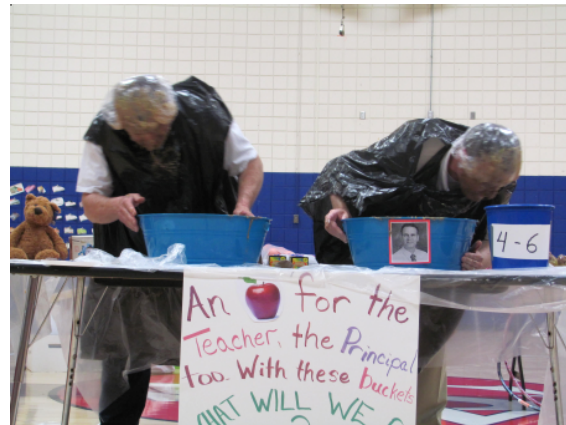

PI.E CELEBRATION

Partners In Education held its annual Walkathon Fundraiser on April 4th and the weather was beautiful for a spring walk. Students, parents, teachers and volunteers walked around the high school track for one hour. Thanks to everyone who participated, we were able to raise $5201.00. On April 26th, all grade levels meet in the gym for the prize program.

The top 3 students who raised the most money were presented with high-tech prizes. Pictured above 1st place, Kammy Miller (middle), 2nd place Trent Binegar (left) and 3rd place Dhapne Gallegos (right). All other students who raised money were allowed to pick out a prize of their choice from tables full of surprises.

Also as an incentive for students to get pledges, Mr. Purcell and Mr. Carter had to perform a challenge in front of the whole student body. The stunt was bobbing for apples but instead of using water, PIE used chocolate pudding and creamed corn. All the students and staff loved watching Mr. Carter and Mr. Purcell dive into their tub of goo. SWES truly appreciates everything that PIE does for our school and we would like to thank them for putting on such a great year end program.
